Postdoctoral Program Admissions

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:

We seek applicants interested in advanced training in academic, public sector mental health. Our focus is on providing patient-centered care, education, and training informed by the Scientist-Practitioner model in an environment characterized by collaborative learning, scholarship, inclusivity, and diversity. Our training focuses on developing advanced competencies in clinical skill sets (psychotherapy, assessment, consultation, inter and multidisciplinary collaborations, etc.), scholarly/research activities, supervision/teaching/training, ethics, diversity and intersectionality, interpersonal and leadership skills, and metacompetencies. Our eligibility requirements are:

- Master's Degree in Clinical or Counseling Psychology or a related Behavioral Science.
- Completion of APA-accredited Ph.D. or Psy.D. Program in Clinical or Counseling Psychology.
- Completion of APA-accredited internship.
- Completion of all doctoral degree requirements, including the dissertation or doctoral project by August 31st of the year the postdoctoral residency program begins.

Describe any other required minimum criteria used to screen applicants:

1. Completion of APA-accredited Ph.D. or Psy.D. Program in Clinical or Counseling psychology. 2. Completion of APA-accredited internship. 3. Completion of all doctoral degree requirements, including the dissertation or doctoral project by August 31st of the year the postdoctoral residency program begins. 4. Master's degree in Clinical or Counseling Psychology or a related Behavioral Science. 5. Eligible to work in the U.S. (we are unable to sponsor visas).
